

INCREASE CUSTOMER VOLUME & PROFIT MARGINS

Fumigator Benefits

For the past 4 years, Bed Bugs and Beyond has exclusively provided select licensed fumigators with a significant volume of new customers (i.e. Abercrombie & Fitch, Hollister, Victoria's Secret, Pres. Clinton, etc.) without increasing any front office overhead and at no cost to the fumigator.

Bed Bugs and Beyond handles all bed bug Fumigation clients' needs with our custom services:

- Customer Counseling
- Customer Education
- Sales & Marketing
- Scheduling & Treatment Orchestration

Our services include, fulfillment of all service requirements that PCOs and Fumigators do not wish to engage in or have time for (i.e. taking customer calls 24/7, scheduling and coordinating all fumigation & treatment requirements i.e. K-9 scent detection, vault containment, vehicle delivery & full structure)

Our specialists provide fumigation education and counseling by spending the necessary time with customers and victims to give peace of mind by providing scientifically documented education of the FACTS about bed bugs and how to control and eliminate them.

Who is Bed Bugs and Beyond?

Bed Bugs and Beyond Fumigation Consultants provide exclusive bed bug elimination sales, brokerage & marketing service to Vikane fumigation operators across the U.S.

Our partner benefits include: 24/7 customer sales, support, education, counseling, full service fumigation contracting, scheduling, coordination and orchestration of our unique patent pending proven treatment process.

This process includes pre & post treatment best practices and in depth customer education; which has resulted in 100% customer satisfaction.

Achieving complete elimination of all bed bugs & their eggs in a single treatment is key to our offering which includes best practice solutions to combat potential re-infestation.

Specialized Services

Bed Bugs and Beyond coordinates and orchestrates a complete elimination treatment process, including the use of K-9 scent detection providers and removal of infested contents for fumigation; so traditional treatments can be conducted without having to work around infestation and clutter.

This process increases a PCOs success rate in a shorter time frame and reduces human error. This results in happier, more satisfied, loyal customers to ensure you maintain your positive reputation in the market place.

Bed Bugs and Beyond is solely focused on providing fumigation client sales & service support and is not a fumigator or PCO; therefore does not compete in any way with your service offering or clients.

We simply compliment your offering by allowing you the opportunity to maintain & expand your client base, establish new relationships & strengthen your reputation by providing quick & proven bed bug elimination options while maintaining your residual client base.
